THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people; standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizen; and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war, or the voluntary action of the Southern States in Constitutional Conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated; do, with the return of peace, demand,

1. Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution and civil government of the American people.

2. Amnesty for all past political offenses, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens, and the payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable.

3. All money drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, should be honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and justice, be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

4. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds, and other public securities.

5. One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

6. Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolishment of the freedmen's bureau, and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and the discontinuance of inquisitorial boards for assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened; the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into National forces in time of peace; a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

7. Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from offices, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to, and the independence of the Executive and Judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

8. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; an assertion of American nationality, which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights, and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance, and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career, after the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution.

It has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which was rallied that noble volunteer army, which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States in time of peace to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury.

It has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty.

It has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press.

It has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret Star Chamber inquisitions, for constitutional tribunals.

It has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from search and seizures.

It has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters, without any specification or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law.

It has converted the American capitol into a bastile.

It has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort.

It has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judiciary tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President.

Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of debt created during the war.

It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own cabinet.

Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President we will meet as a subject and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with this exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and, if sanctioned by the people, will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized, consolidated government in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of equal States.

That we regard the reconstruction acts of Congress, so-called, as usurpations, unconstitutional, revolutionary and void, and that our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed widely among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants at the minimum price as established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed, necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands and not the lands themselves should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress on the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and on behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the conservative element and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people, and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship and hail all such co-operating with us as friends and brothers.

ISSUES OF THE CAMPAIGN

A CORNER-STONE STATEMENT.

Great Speech of Hon. T. A. Hendricks, of Indiana, in the United States Senate, July 14, 1868.

Mr. Hendricks—Mr. President, it was my desire at this time to submit some rather extended remarks to the Senate upon the political questions now occupying public attention; but the condition of my health to-day will only allow a brief reference to them.

I have observed for some days past a purpose on the part of Senators who represent the majority to avoid the position of the defensive, and to assume, if possible, that of the offensive in this political contest. In my judgment that is neither practicable nor possible on their part; it is not in the nature of the case. For eight years the Federal Government and most of the State governments of the North have been controlled by the party now in the majority in Congress, and it is not possible that that party can avoid a response to the people upon the questions that attract public attention.

Waiving an inquiry into the conduct of that party during the war, which they claim it is not just to make, and confining the inquiry to the three years since the close of the war and the return of peace, there are certain important questions that must be answered. And, first, the people will desire to know very distinctly and emphatically what has been done with the $1,200,000,000 that have been collected from them under the internal revenue law and the tariff system since the first day of July, 1865. I know that $400,000,000 may be accounted for at least in part in the payment of interest upon the public debt. Then the people will want to know how it is, independently of the interest upon the public debt, that it has taken $800,000,000 to carry this Government through a period of three years, when in a time of peace it used to require but from sixty to seventy or eighty million dollars annually. The people will wish to know during this contest whether this enormous sum of money, which has put the citizen everywhere over the land upon the observance of the strictest economy to respond to the demands of the Government, has been expended in the promotion of the interests of the party; whether it has been expended to extend the enterprises of the country, or to maintain in the Southern States that system of government which had gradually proceeded from step to step in arraying one race against another; whether it has been expended in genuine acts of benevolence and kindness, or in maintaining a political system by which the colored people have been organized throughout the South into a political party; in other words, whether this enormous sum that has been wrung from the people has been expended for their benefit, for the promotion of their interests and their good, or for other purposes; and no arts of the orator or ingenuity of the sophist can avoid an answer to that grave and important inquiry.

Why is it, sir, that in a time of profound peace it has cost $100,000,000 a year to support an army of fifty-six thousand? The people especially will want an answer to that question when you propose to elect to the Presidency the head of that army, who for a portion of that period was not only the General of the army, but the Secretary of War. They want to know how it was that during the administration of the department by him it cost at the rate of $120,000,000 to support the War Department and army, when it used to cost but $1,000,000 to the regiment. The people will want to know why it is that in a time of profound peace, when we have no war, except inconsiderable strifes on our borders with the Indians, $95,000,000 were expended, in the fiscal year before the last, to maintain the army, independent of bounties, and that for the quarter when the candidate for the Presidency was the Secretary of War, it cost about thirty million dollars, or at the rate of $120,000,000 per annum; $2,000,000 to the regiment; $2000 to the man. The people will want the majority in Congress, when they demand the continuance of power beyond this period of eight years, to answer why it is that so much money is drawn from them by the extraordinary power of taxation, that it may thus go to support the most expensive military system that has ever been known in the world.

I might speak of some of these expenditures. I might speak of that favoritism in a small way which has shown itself in the publication in the newspapers that are favored by special legislation in the District of Columbia of notices for inconsiderable army supplies upon the Rio Grande, and at the distant forts, when it was impossible, from the date of the publication that any man could receive information by such publication, which would enable him to compete in the bidding. I might speak of other expenditures of like sort, indicating a favoritism not worthy of any political party that claims the confidence of the country, but I will not occupy so much of the time of the Senate.

The people will wish to know during this contest why it is that the Supreme Court has been denied the right to inquire into the constitutionality of the legislation of this Congress. The people know that the Supreme Court was established as one of the securities to their liberty, as one of the props and pillars underneath their institutions. They want to know why this prop and pillar has been stricken down, and for what political and party purpose it has been done. If your legislation be constitutional, valid, and right, then the people will wish to know why Congress should shield itself in its enactments from that inquiry that the Constitution intended should be had in regard to all legislation.

The people during this contest will wish to know why it is that the executive department has been stripped of that power which has been conferred upon it by the Constitution; why it is that Congress has assumed to itself all those powers which, for nearly eighty years, were exercised under the Constitution by the executive department; and for what purpose of good to the people this was intended. Why is it that from the Executive has been taken the responsibility for the execution of the law? Why is it that to the Senate has been assumed that responsibility? Why is it that Congress has said that the right to remove from office shall be taken from the Executive, when that power has been exercised, and as I believe according to the spirit of the Constitution, and as I know, according to the construction of the fathers, by the Executive all the time; and that in the Senate a many-headed body, where responsibility is divided so that it lights upon no particular individual, a responsibility should be assumed which is worth nothing to the fidelity and security of the public service.

The people will want to know why for three years a party with a majority of two-thirds in Congress have not restored the Southern States to their practical relations with the Federal Government; why it is that such a period has elapsed and no genuine, peaceful and permanent results have been attained. They know what is the condition of affairs. They know what temporary enterprises have been set on foot in the Southern States. They understand all that quite well; but they want to know, and they demand to know, in my judgment, with a very earnest demand, why it is that these States have not been restored in the spirit of the Constitution, and with that harmony which will promote the permanency of the Union, the stability of our institutions, and the prosperity of every section of the country. The people will want to know in this contest, why it is that Congress stepped in between the Executive and an immediate, peaceful, practical and permanent restoration of the States to their practical relations to the Federal Government: why it was, that when we were so far advanced in that work under the policy inaugurated by the Executive, when States were accepting the propositions, adopting constitutions that were acceptable everywhere, agreeing to everything demanded by the North, acquiescing in the results of the war in every respect whatever, Congress came in and, exciting a strife with the Executive, stopped, and to some extent defeated, that restoration policy which was bringing again permanent union and permanent prosperity. That question will be asked by sensible, thinking people, and it is for the majority in Congress, and for their partisans over the country, to give a direct, plain and unequivocal answer.

The people will want to know in this connection why it is that by this political controversy that Congress has gotten up with the Executive, striking down the policy that was then almost a success, the return of trade, production, and prosperity have been indefinitely delayed. They know, as Senators know, that from the time when this controversy was gotten up by Congress to break down the policy of restoration, then almost completed, the productions of a large portion of the country have from year to year fallen off, and that the exports which those productions furnished, enabling us to keep up the balance of trade somewhat in our favor, have fallen off so much that in a large degree that balance has been made up in gold and in the Government securities. The people want to know why it is that trade cannot be allowed to return to its ancient channels; that the industries of the country are not encouraged, but that, on the contrary, they are kept in that disturbed condition that investments dare not be made by capital, and that labor is afraid to make an effort even if capital should be invested.

The people will ask one further question, what has been gained by this controversy, like the question that in former times was asked by the grandchild of the grandfather in relation to the great battle, "What has all this been about?" Senators know very well that when the Thirty-ninth Congress met, the work of restoration, according to the policy of Mr. Johnson, was almost completed. Constitutions had been adopted in the Southern States abolishing slavery, or declaring it abolished forever, repudiating the Southern debt, and making every pledge to the Federal Union which Northern sentiment demanded; but Congress intervened against that policy and interposed its own, and now the people, after two or three years of delay, of distraction, of the disturbance of trade and commerce, want to know what has been gained by it? When you come to answer that question to the people, you cannot show them a single Southern constitution which any Republican mind can say is a better constitution than had been adopted under the Johnson policy, unless you say it is a better constitution because the negroes are enfranchised and a part of the whites disfranchised, and the power in the great section of country taken from the white men and given to the colored men.

Mr. President, when the people of the country demand to know of their legislators why civil law is subordinate to military law, why the Judge upon the bench is stripped of his robes of office, and in his stead there is substituted a military commander to decide upon the rights of the people; when they demand to know why in secret commission and military court the citizen is tried for a criminal offense, or touching a civil right, why these things are done in this country in a time of profound peace, some grave and weighty answer must be given them.

They will want to know why it is that you pretend for the time to repudiate on the part of Congress the right to establish negro suffrage in the Northern states, and yet establish it in the Southern States; why it is that you rally upon a platform attempting to avoid the responsibility of this issue at home, and yet would seek to establish such a system of suffrage in ten of the States of the South; and what answer will you give? Do you tell the people of the North that they are not interested in the question of suffrage in the Southern States? You cannot make that answer, for this fall it may occur that the negro votes of the South will decide the Presidential election. It may occur that a majority of the electoral votes in the North will be overcome by the negro votes of the South. It may not so occur; but yet if it does occur, and if the colored people of the Southern States, holding the balance of political power in this country, shall decide who is to be the President and Vice-President of the United States, is not that coming home, as a practical and direct question, to every Northern man, his vote being overcome by the vote of the colored man of the South, and that, too, by an act of Congress? So that the people of the North will want to understand how it is that you pretend not to force upon them negro suffrage at home, and yet to establish it in ten of the States of the South.

The people will want to know why, in a time of peace, the rights of the citizen have been trampled under foot, and the ancient writs of the law which protect and secure them in their property and their personal liberty have been abrogated; why it is that instead of the courts of law where men are heard face to face, the witnesses called face to face, the jury from the neighborhood hearing all the evidence, deciding the case, why that mode of trial in courts has been abolished, and in its stead has been established the military court, where there are none of the guards and securities for justice that a thousand years of experience have shown to be essential?

Mr. President, the two parties into which the people of this country are now divided have declared their platforms of principles; they have put their ticket in nomination; and it is for the people now to decide which set of principles they will adopt, and which set of candidates they will elect. Upon this subject I have but very few remarks to submit.

In my opposition to the ticket that was nominated at Chicago I never expect to place it upon personal grounds. I recognize the gentleman at the head of that ticket as an eminent military man, and his associate as a distinguished civilian. Against them, personally, I never expect to express a sentiment. I oppose their election because they have become, by acquiescing in their nomination, the representatives of the sentiments that have controlled Congress for the last three years; because they stand upon a platform which is objectionable in part and equivocal in part.

The Convention at New York has expressed its views in a platform which in no section can be misunderstood. The man that runs may read and understand. The plainest as well as the most learned will interpret it alike. It declares our views and our purposes so distinctly and emphatically that the people are not and cannot be misled.

The contrast between the two platforms struck me with great force as I listened to the Senator from New Jersey (Mr. Frelinghuysen) some minutes since, as he read one of the sections of the Chicago platform declaring that the public debt must be paid in accordance with the letter and the spirit of the law. What does that mean? My colleague would say, I have no doubt that it means one thing, and the Senator from New Jersey would claim that it means another, a very different thing. Many Senators claim that the spirit of the law is that the bonds shall all be paid in gold; while other Senators, eminent and clear-headed, say that it means they shall be paid in greenbacks, if Congress chooses so to pay them.

The resolution of the Democratic Convention is as follows:

"Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment; and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice be paid in the lawful money of the United States."

The resolution declares that, unless the obligation issued by the Government, or the law authorizing its issue, expressly provides that it is to be paid in gold, it may be paid in lawful money.

The law authorizing the issue of the five-twenties provided for a lawful money, and declares Treasury notes, with the legal tender clause, to be lawful money; and neither the law nor the obligation provides that these bonds shall be paid in gold.

Gov. Seymour stands upon this platform, and I claim that the platform explains itself, and standing upon the platform, his position is not and cannot be misunderstood.

I had thought of reading one or two other of the resolutions adopted at New York, in contrast with the resolutions adopted at Chicago, to show that at New York positions were assumed plainly, distinctly, directly, so that the people could not be misled by anything that was there said. But, sir, as it would likely take more time than I am able to occupy this morning, I will not go further in that direction.

With a platform explicit and direct upon all the great questions that now attract public attention, it only remains to inquire who are the men that stand upon it. I need not, in addressing either the Senate or the country, occupy much time in speaking of Gov. Seymour. He has been long known to the country as one of the first of her statesmen. A ripe scholar and profound thinker, in times and in positions of great difficulty he has done the State much service. He has filled positions the highest in this country except that to which he has been nominated, and to which, in my judgment, he will be elected. A statesman, cool in thought and efficient in action, he will command the confidence of the country.

I know that criticisms have been made upon his conduct during the war. I am glad that it requires but a sentence to answer all criticisms. So efficient was he as the Executive of the great State of New York, in the raising of troops, and especially in the aid he gave to the Government about the time of the battle of Gettysburg, that Mr. Lincoln returned him, in the most earnest and emphatic manner, his thanks.

He is an Eastern man, but he is acceptable to the Northwest. We know from the sentiments that he has already expressed that he is not a sectional man. He is a man who, at the head of this Government, will recognize all sections, and respect and labor to promote the interests of each. While the chief Executive of the State of New York, he favored, publicly and privately, that policy which would encourage the producers of the great Northwest. He favored on the part of the State of New York the adoption of a policy that would allow our heavy freight to pass over the State canal almost without charge; and if his policy had been carried out to the extent that he desired, the Northwest would have been benefitted to the extent of millions of dollars. A national man, fair to all sections, he may well receive the support, not only of his own, but of that section from which I come; and I believe that he will receive a support, whether sufficient to control the votes in the South or not, I will not say, but a cordial support in that section of the Union. Whether he can obtain the electoral votes in the Southern States will depend, in my judgment, upon the question whether the military are kept organized in those States, and the Freedmen's Bureau, with its party machinery, to control the elections.

Of Gen. Blair, the candidate for the Vice Presidency, I need say but little to the Senate. He was at one time a member of the other branch of Congress, and recognized by all as possessing high attainments and abilities. Talented, generous, and brave, he will receive an enthusiastic support. Connected with the army, and participating in some of its grand movements that have made its heroes immortal, his name and fame will be cherished and guarded by his late associates in arms. The criticisms, sharp and ingenious, that have been made upon the views which he may have expressed upon the condition and rights of the people of the subjugated States will not be heeded by the people when they reflect that you have shut the door of the Supreme Court against all inquiry in regard to the legislation which he has denounced. You have declared that your legislation shall not undergo that review and examination which the Constitution itself contemplated. You have declared that the judiciary shall not decide whether your acts of reconstruction are constitutional and valid. You have therefore left it to the Executive to decide for itself.

Mr. President, I believe that the highest interests of the country demand the election of this ticket, and that it will be elected, and that the country will again be restored to permanent peace—peace that rests not upon subjection to despotic power, but upon the restored supremacy of the Constitution and the rightful authority of all the departments of the Government—and to a prosperity as enduring as that peace.

C. Brinkley did draw his accommodation bill on A. M. Hopkins, New Orleans, in favor of R. P. Brinkley, dated December 24, 1859, at 12 months after date, for $1997 00; and A. M. Hopkins did pay the sum of $600 00.

And whereas, in order to secure and save harmless the said John Overton, Thomas Bibb, R. C. Brinkley and A. F. Hopkins, the drawers respectively of the aforesaid accommodation bills, and to secure also the said A. and J. Denniston & Co. on the note aforesaid, the said Arthur M. Hopkins did execute an indenture of Trust, dated the 8th day of February, 1861, by and in which he conveyed to Charles Kortrecht the premises situate in the county of Cook and State of Illinois, known and described as follows: "A certain piece or parcel of land lying and being near the city of Chicago, in the State of Illinois, and consisting of about ten acres, which was conveyed in fee simple by James W. Pryor, of the city of New York, to the said Arthur M. Hopkins, said conveyance being by deed now of record in Cook county, Illinois," which said land is more fully described as blocks three (3) and four (4) of James W. Pryor's subdivision of part of the northeast quarter of section four (4), township thirty-eight (38) north, range fourteen (14) east of the third principal meridian, according to survey and map of the same, said to be deposited for record in the proper office for the recording of surveys and maps in Cook county, Illinois, said subdivision being immediately south of Egan avenue and west of the Chicago and Rock Island Railroad, and said block three (3) and four (4) contain, with the streets bounding on them, ten acres or thereabouts, being the land conveyed to said Arthur M. Hopkins by said James W. Pryor and Katherine M. Pryor, his wife, by their deed dated July 3, 1856, upon Trust; that in case a majority of the beneficiaries in said Indenture of Trust mentioned should direct a sale of said premises, then the said Charles Kortrecht was thereby authorized and instructed to sell said premises, at public auction, in the city of Memphis, State of Tennessee, after giving sixty days notice in one or more of the newspapers published in said city of Memphis, of the time and place of said sale, said sale to be made for cash or credit, as a majority of the beneficiaries in said Indenture of Trust named might direct, and out of the proceeds of said sale to pay said accommodation bills and the note aforesaid, and to pay the remainder, if any, over to said Arthur M. Hopkins, as will appear by reference to said Trust Deed, recorded in the Recorder's office of Cook county, Illinois in Book 230 of Deeds, page 542.

And whereas, default has been made in the payment of said accommodation bills and note, and application has been been made and a sale of said premises, for cash, has been directed by a majority of said beneficiaries in said Indenture of Trust named, for the purpose of carrying out said Trust; now, therefore, public notice is hereby given, that I will, on

SPEECH OF SENATOR HENDRICKS.

We invite the particular attention of our readers to the speech of Senator Hendricks, to be found elsewhere in this issue. It ranks with Mr. Pendleton's speech, delivered at Grafton on Wednesday last, as one of the best campaign documents yet given to the public. It cannot fail to make votes for Conservatism and Democracy among the people of the West, with whom its arguments will have peculiar force.

LETTER BY THE WAY.

THE CAMPAIGN INAUGURATED.

At Grafton, West Virginia, on Thursday last, in presence of a convention of the Democracy of that State, Mr. Geo. H. Pendleton and Senator Thurman, of Ohio, inaugurated the Presidential canvass by speeches, especially that of Mr. Pendleton, that must prove among the best and most fruitful of good, as they are among the first of the era. On the day before, in the Senate of the United States, Mr. Hendricks, of Indiana, in a speech of an hour or more, gave such a summary of Radical mischief and misdoing as, if generally circulated, would almost obviate the necessity of another word from any of the thousand effective speakers the Democratic party will turn loose upon the country by the first of September next.

In Maine all the arrangements of the party are completed, and the struggle will there be at once commenced by the most stirring Democratic orators, some from the south having signified their intention of helping to "scotch" the snake in his own hole. At least two Representatives to Congress will be elected, and the Radical majority be largely reduced.

In New York the party is about to prepare a State ticket to be run in conjunction with that of the National Convention. The excitement and enthusiasm of the great gathering of the Democracy has had the most happy effect upon "the brethren" of New York State, who are confident in their ability to beat their opponents and carry their State by full one hundred thousand majority. To achieve so encouraging a result they have earnestly engaged against official corruption, and the worst of all the controlling "money rings" of the city.

From all the Eastern States the most gratifying exhibits come of hope, earnestness and energy. Whoever had the pleasure of conversing with the delegates to the National Convention from this section of our country must have been struck with the prominence of these qualities in the persons of men of more than average intelligence in such a body. They have a double duty to perform in the overthrow of Radicalism to rid themselves of an incubus that is well nigh as oppressive to them as to us, and forever to curb and restrain a spirit, which too long paramount in our national affairs, has, as emanating from the East, reflected discreditably upon them. To accomplish this they pledge themselves, and have invoked the aid of much of the first ability of the party.

THE WEST.

To the great West, including Kentucky, all eyes are turned with anxiety. Here the great fight is to take place, as here the war and the policies of the war have left the worst impresses, the most unfaverable against the Democracy. Immediately in contact with the theater of the greatest battles, the population of these States were more thoroughly divided and more bitterly hostile to each other than those of the East, and although equal sufferers at the hands of the Congressional majority for the past four years, it is only possible now, under the stimulus of a Presidential contest, that they will be able thoroughly to free themselves from sectional influences and personal preferences, and voting in the interests of the whole people, secure the election of Seymour and Blair.

Those of the politicians of the West, including the delegates, (a splendid representation of the intelligence and worth of that important portion of the country,) who are considered well posted, are most free in their expressions of belief that they will carry the candidates triumphantly through the crisis. And few can doubt this result who remember that it was owing in great part, if not entirely, to the chivalrous spirit that animated them that the Convention of New York was not a repetition of that at Charleston. There was only wanting the disposition on the part of the West to have postponed, perhaps indefinitely, the day of liberation for the South. So enthusiastic in the labor for Democratic success so chivalrous in self-denial, and determined, it is hardly possible the men of the West can be worsted in the most engrossing canvass that has yet been made in this country. Kentucky will go straight out for the ticket. Of Indiana, a Democratic victory of over thirty thousand is predicted; of Ohio the same, and also of Missouri and Illinois. These, added to such States as Pennsylvania and New York, with others of less numbers in the Electoral College, will assure us victory.

TENNESSEE.

Tennessee, occupying a peculiar position as to government, and the political status of her people is regarded with unusual interest by the citizens of the other States, fearing, as they do, that the designs of Brownlow, if carried out, will involve us in an emeute against a tyranny so malicious as enters into all the affairs of life. They fear the results, not as so much militating against the triumph of the Democracy of the Union as that it will involve new issues before the people are able to meet them, and perhaps attract sympathy for the disgrace we would wipe out. But, "come weal or woe," the Democratic masses are with us. It is expected that we will carry Tennessee. If we make but half such an effort to that end as characterized our people in their political contests before the war—if the people turn out and work, and the leaders are harmonious, success is more than possible to us.

THE SOUTH.

Since the unlooked for success in Mississippi, Democrats are everywhere hopeful that, in many of the Southern States, majorities may be received for our ticket. They not unreasonably expect that the people of the South, will use all available means, including the "everlasting nigger," to foil their enemies. By perjury, fraud and corruption, the carpet-baggers are so far triumphant. By the fair, open and above-board use of all legitimate means at the command of the people of the South, they may not only turn the scales in their own territory, but help in the good work all over the Union. But little help can come to us of the South from abroad, as it is deemed best to concentrate the energy and wealth of the party in those States of the Union whose electoral votes it will be impossible for Congress to throw out. With the moral power of the party, exerted in our behalf, however, it is expected we will be able to work out our own salvation.

THE PACIFIC AND THE TERRITORIES.

From the far-away States of the Pacific and the Territories the most gratifying reports come of the determination of the Democracy. The enthusiasm over the nominations has penetrated even so far, and the people pledge themselves to their leaders as good for large majorities against the Grantites. The delegates from the Pacific to the Convention were among the most hopeful, and as large in promise as their territory is extensive. They say that with such standard-bearers and such a platform, defeat is simply impossible. Having already under most disadvantageous circumstances, tested the strength of their opponents, they ought to be good judges and reliable as to what they promise in the future.

THE ADMINISTRATION.

Whatever the defection from Democracy and Conservatism of individual members of the Cabinet, there can be no doubt that the moral support and the earnest labors of the Administration will be given for Seymour and Blair. Rumors have been circulated the contrary of this, but without foundation. One suggestion will prove the fallacy of such misstatements: The President has persistently and fearlessly for three years, fought the supporters of Grant and the Radical candidates themselves, is it at all likely that he would now, at the last hour, turn and befriend those who sought to ruin him? So far as Andrew Johnson is concerned, he can always be counted on, on the side of the people. This Presidential canvass is the people's fight. He will bend his energies for their success, no matter what his personal disappointments or the unfriendliness of many with whom he will co-operate. The man who has been the official standard-bearer of Conservatism and who personally as well as politically has triumphed over the enemies of his country, will not permit an opportunity to pass when he may assist in the absolute triumph of the Constitution he has so ably defended. Without a party, of few friends, Mr. Johnson has labored and toiled ever since President, to educate the Northern masses from Radicalism to Conservatism, and by his indomitable will and pluck he has been successful. It is not saying too much of him that, had he proved unfaithful, there would have been little left of Constitution or country for us to rally around. He might have been Dictator or whatever else he pleased. As it is, he has been true, and has made a majority for Democracy in the Electoral College more than possible—a surety.

J. M. K.

TENNESSEE.

—Some important and radical changes in the future programme of the Nashville Blood-Horse Association were agreed upon at the meeting yesterday. Among other things it was resolved that in future no gambling or gambling apparatus should be permitted at the Nashville Course, and that all improper characters should be excluded from the course.—Banner, 19th.

—Mr. John Hitz, Consul General of Switzerland, says the Nashville Banner of the 19th, has arrived in McMinnville, to proceed to Beersheba Springs and to Grundy county, to inspect the lands upon which Capt. Plummacher, Agent of the Swiss Immigration Society, has chosen to establish a large Swiss colony, of many hundred families. It is expected that the Consul will approve the selection made, and that in the course of next winter and spring, the immigrants will commence to pour in.

—Mr. I. C. Link, of Nashville, shot his wife on Saturday night last. He mistook her for a burglar.

—An election of fifteen directors of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad will be held at the depot building of the company, at Nashville, on Wednesday, the 12th of August next.

—The Tennessee Horticultural Society is getting long finely with the work in hand. The preparations necessary to the grand floral, fruit and vegetable exhibition, to take place about the 10th of October, have already been commenced. The members of the society are determined to make this a superb exhibition of their skill and taste.

—Mr. Donald Padman, formerly of the Nashville editorial corps, is now attached to the Louisville Courier.

—We learn that the Rev. N. A. D. Bryant, Register of Hardeman county, and one of the most prominent Radicals of the State, has come out openly for Seymour and Blair.

GENERAL ITEMS.

—Horatio Seymour is a nephew of Hon. Horatio Seymour, of Middlebury, United States Senator from Vermont for twelve years.

—Roscoe Conkling, Republican United States Senator from New York, is married to a sister of Horatio Seymour.

—A brick chimney in Worcester, Mass., 100 feet high, has been moved 400 feet, without stays or prop. It is detached from any building.

—It is known that the articles of the Tribune on the impeachment, which people generally credited to Mr. Greeley, were written by Mr. V. B. Denslow.

—The dressing at the summer resorts is not as extravagant or as flashy this season as last.

—Mr. Chas. Dimitry, son of Professor Dimitry, of New Orleans, has just finished a novel called "The House in Belfour street," which is in the press of Blelock & Co., of New Orleans.

—The remains of an ancient Syracusan colony have been discovered at Cassaro, in Sicily. The surrounding wall was 2000 meters in circumference and three in thickness.

—A cargo of corn, measuring 53,600 bushels, said to be the largest ever shipped from that city, left Chicago for Buffalo on the new propeller Philadelphia, a few days ago.

—During the past five years, a sewing machine establishment in Philadelphia has taught 10,000 women the use of the sewing machine free of expense.

ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, July 21.—A Democratic ratification meeting at Leavenworth last night was attended by a large number of soldiers from the fort, who cheered lustily for Seymour and Blair.

Gen. Grant is meeting with moderate receptions along the Kansas Pacific Railroad.

NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, July 21.—Secretary Fletcher to day refused to sign the State bonds for the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad. Forty five bonds have been signed by his agents, and delivered to the Receiver of the road. The refusal of the Secretary caused Cliffe to cease paying the employees, who to-day prevented the construction train from leaving to repair the road, declaring that none should leave until they were paid.

OHIO.

SANDUSKY, July 21.—The Secretary of War has ordered an indefinite postponement of the removal of the Confederate dead from Johnson's Island to a cemetery of this city, as great fears were felt for the health of the city in case the bodies were disinterred during this intensely hot weather, and a strong protest against it was sent to the War Department.

CINCINNATI, July 21.—Three of the men who attempted to rob the Express Company, on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, some time since, while being taken to the Brownstown jail, yesterday, were taken out of the cars by a mob of three hundred men, and hung.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, July 21.—Later advices from Millican, Texas, confirm the report of serious negro disturbances, which it is doubtful if they are yet quieted, as the telegraph lines are interrupted and nothing later than the 18th has been received. Col. Gentry, of Gen. Buchanan's staff, has been ordered to Millican to investigate the matter.

At the request of Gov. Warmouth, a joint resolution was passed by the Senate yesterday, calling on Gen. Buchanan for troops to repress lawlessness in the northern and western parishes—a memorial having been received from Franklin parish, with ten signatures, setting forth that at least fifty murders had been committed in that and the adjoining parishes lately. The resolution excited a strong and acrimonious debate, some of the members being opposed to calling upon the military, as unnecessary, the civil authority being sufficient.

HAVANA.

HAVANA, July 21.—The city of Caraccas surrendered on the 28th of June, Gen. Monagas entering triumphantly.

Gen. Bruzel, commanding the Government forces, escaped by flight.

Port Carello remains true to the Government, and is well fortified. Gen. Bruzel has gone there, and Monagas had started 2000 men in pursuit.

The Revolutionists have established a Government and notified the foreign ministers.

San Domingo advices state that a revolution had broken out in the North, headed by Cabral and Luperan, and arrests and banishment continued.

The American Minister at Porte au Prince had refused protection to refugees.

It was thought the United States was protecting Salnave.

The American Consul had gone to the headquarters of the Revolutionists, to induce the rebels to return to their allegiance.

Salnave was proclaimed Emperor at the capital, but declined the title.

The town of Saltrove had been destroyed and pillaged by Gen. Christi.

No quarter is to be shown hereafter by either party.

Two war vessels had been captured by the Haytiens—one with 200 men for Salnave.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—Gen. Gillem has submitted to Gen. Grant a report of his action as regards the condition of Mississippi under the reconstruction acts. He states the results of the late election as follows: For the Constitution, 56,231; against it, 63,860. Gen. Gillem says: "As is generally the case in elections, frauds are charged by both parties. All reports and complaints bearing on the subject are herewith transmitted for the consideration of the proper authorities, merely remarking that I am satisfied that the election was as fair and free from intimidation or the influence of fraud, as it would be possible to receive under existing circumstances, and that no undue influence was exercised at the polls, and if intimidation was used at all, it was beyond the power of the military to reach it. As the defeat of the Constitution renders it possible that the State may for a time remain under military control, I consider it my duty to call attention to the almost utter impossibility of finding persons to fill vacancies in civil offices who possess the necessary attainments and can qualify under the existing laws. I would therefore recommend that section nine of the act of July 19, 1867, be so modified as to render eligible to office persons on the list of registered and qualified voters to fill the vacancies which exist or may occur in the civil offices, State or municipal."

Judge Poland has resigned the position as member of the Committee on Elections.

The President has sent a large list of consular and other nominations to the Senate.

The Cabinet meeting to-day was attended by all the members, including Attorney General Evarts.

In the House to-day Washburne, of Illinois, from the Conference Committee on the Deficiency bill, made a report stating that it contained $1,500,000 for rivers and harbors, the total amount of the bill being $3,500,000, which was agreed to. The Senate also agreed to the report.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The joint Committee on the Library were discharged from the further consideration of the petition on the subject of an international copyright law.

The concurrent resolution declaring the ratification of the fourteenth amendment was taken up and adopted.

It declares that three-fourths of the States, including Ohio and New Jersey, having adopted the amendment, it has become a part of the Constitution of the United States.

A joint resolution was offered instructing the Secretary of State to pay the Senators from Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana and North Carolina the compensation allowed by law computing from the commencement of the fortieth Congress, but a debate arising it went over.

A joint resolution, admitting steam plows free of duty, for one year from June 30th, the last, was passed.

Morton called up the bill to authorize the construction of bridges across the Ohio, which was opposed by Pomeroy, and supported by Cameron, until 10 o'clock, when the special order, the bill for the protection of American citizens in foreign countries, came up, and was assigned for the evening session to-night.

Howe presented a report from the Conference Committee on the Indian Appropriation bill, which was adopted, and the Senate went into Executive session, and subsequently took a recess.

HOUSE.

Wilson, of the Judiciary, to whom was referred the claims of the Representatives from the late rebel States, that they be allowed full pay from the commencement of Congress, reported a resolution that they shall be allowed pay from the date of their elections. Adopted.

The oath was administered to Chas. W. Beckly, B. W. Norris, Chas. W. Pierce, J. B. Callis and Thos. Houghey, who took seats as members from Alabama.

The Conference report on the bill to supply vacancies in the Executive Departments was agreed to.

A concurrent resolution was received from the Senate declaring the ratification of the fourteenth amendment by three-fourths of the States, and declaring it a part of the Constitution of the United States, was adopted under the operations of the previous question by 136 against 32.

During the proceedings a dispatch was received from Gov. Bullock announcing the ratification of the fourteenth amendment by the Georgia Legislature by 34 majority in a Joint Committee.

The House then resumed the consideration of the Funding bill.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

A new enterprise, to be known as the National Telegraph Company, has been organized with valuable franchises conferred by a recent act of Congress for the purpose of establishing Trunk Lines of Telegraphs on all the principal railroads and mail routes in the United States. The stock is to be issued upon the same principle as that of the Merchant's Union Express Company, which recently commenced operations. The design is to interest the entire business community in the enterprise. This is done, not so much to dispose of the stock as it is to secure the business of the country through which the lines pass.

The Capital is to be

$10,000,000,

In 100,000 Shares, of the par value of

$100 PER SHARE,

But the actual amount to be paid in cash is

$35 Per Share,

And this amount is to be paid as follows: One per cent. of the par at the time of subscribing, and no more, until the entire capital has been subscribed, and then on calls to be made by the Board of Directors; instalments not to exceed five per cent. per month. When thirty-five per cent. of the par value of the shares has been paid, certificates of stock will be issued. This will give the company a paid up

CASH CAPITAL OF $3,500,000,

Which will be sufficient to duplicate lines to all or nearly all the paying points reached by the present monopoly.

The present Telegraph Companies of the country have been consolidated into one huge monopoly, and are now earning over SIX MILLIONS OF DOLLARS per year, or over one hundred per cent. on the actual cost of their lines, their present capital having been watered over ONE THOUSAND per cent.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY have a recognition from the United States Government of the importance of their enterprise, with a grant of the most valuable franchises ever conferred upon a telegraph company. No competing line has ever had the right now granted by Congress to this company to construct and operate lines over every RAILROAD and MAIL ROUTE in the United States. The position of this company differs from that of any company ever before organized. The question of the RIGHT OF WAY IS FOREVER SETTLED.

The stockholders of this company cannot be sold out or TRANSFERRED to any other company. The act of Congress under which this company has been organized, prohibits any transfer of the franchises granted.

CALLS---HOW TO BE MADE.

One per cent. of the Stock will be required on subscribing, and subsequent calls, not to exceed five per cent. per month, will be made by the Board of Directors, from time to time, as may be necessary, to supply funds to construct and equip the lines; but no calls will be made after the one per cent. is paid, until the ENTIRE CAPITAL STOCK shall have been subscribed.

ACTUAL CAPITAL REQUIRED

The Company confidently believe that thirty-five per cent. of the Capital Stock will construct and fully equip

25,000 MILES OF WIRE,

Which will connect all the commercial centers and important places in the United States. This opinion rests upon the most reliable estimates and responsible offers to construct and equip the lines.

The National Telegraph Company is organized under the Laws of the State of New York and franchises conferred by an act of Congress, approved July 24, 1866.

Stock may now be subscribed in this company at the office of

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The meeting of delegates to select a Congressman and Electors for the Eighth District of Tennessee, will be held at Brownsville on the 10th of August.

LETTER BY THE WAY.—This letter, which should have made its appearance in our columns yesterday, was unavoidably crowded out. It will be found in another column.

DEAD.—The man Irwin, who was wounded in a difficulty at Randolph, on Friday last, mention of which was made in the APPEAL on Sunday, died on Monday. He was of notoriously bad character.

LOCAL EDITOR TURNED PREACHER. We learn that J. A. Dacus, local editor of the Memphis Argus during the war, has become a Baptist preacher, and is holding forth in the State of Illinois.

STOCK STEALING.—The gentlemen who confiscate other people's animals have been attending to business lately. J. M. Hall, on the Hollyford road, has lost a mule; Dr. Harris, on the State Line road, a fine cow; and H. M. Jones, 535 Shelby street, a bay horse.

ARRESTED.—The Louisville Journal of Monday says:

Mary Connor, "a colored lady from Memphis," was picked up yesterday in New Albany by Detective Bruster and nearly a thousand dollars' worth of stolen jewelry found upon her person. She was conveyed back to the Bluff City.

OLD FOLKS PICNIC.—The annual picnic and barbecue of the "Old Folks," takes place to-morrow at Bartlett's Station, and promises to be as fine an affair as that of last season. There will doubtless be a big turnout. Trains will run at short intervals during the day, for the accommodation of the picnicers. The fare will be fifty cents for the round trip.

NEWS—"Go away from home to hear the news." We find the following telegraphic news in the Cincinnati Commercial of the 20th:

MEMPHIS, July 18.—Last night was the hottest known here by the oldest inhabitants. The mercury at 2 o'clock in the morning stood at 96°.

MEMPHIS, July 19.—Mercury ranged from 92° to 100°. Eight deaths from excessive heat, during the past twenty-four hours.

JUVENILE TOURNAMENT.—The young folks are having some amusement in the tournament line in South Memphis. There was one held yesterday, in the neighborhood of Main and Pontotoc streets, at which most of the forms of the tourney were observed, a Queen of Love and Beauty being crowned, etc. Male and female knights contended for the prizes, and all tilted on foot, the proceedings winding up with a grand ball in the evening.

HYDROPHOBIA.—The heated term is upon us, and at least one mad dog is said to have been killed upon our streets. It would, therefore, be well for our readers to know that horseradish and sweet oil—a tablespoonful of this mixture as often as it can be swallowed and retained on the stomach, together with a poultice of the same over the wound—has proved a prompt and perfect cure for this appalling malady, in several instances—indeed, all in which it has been tried so far as known. It is more convenient than mercury, and as simple as cabbage-leaf for preventing sun stroke.

BETRAYED CONFIDENCE.—Three darkies were arrested yesterday by Officer Walsh, for inveigling another anti-Kuklux into a little confidence game, by which the latter gained some valuable information, but at greater cost than he thought was right. The seeker after knowledge, as well as the colored cusses who caused him to become disgusted with his race, will make their appearance before the Commissioner this morning, and should the accused not prove to be shining lights of the Loyal League, they will be fed at the expense of the city until they are wanted to cast their votes in November next for the silent God of the Radicals.

THE HEATED TERM.—We are pained to announce the death of W. G. Thompson, Esq., one of our most eminent members of the bar. It seems that he came to town yesterday about 4 p.m., and entering the house of Mr. Mayer under the Exchange Building, called for water to cool his head. He shortly afterwards sat down at a table and resting his head on his arm, apparently went to sleep. Upon attempting to wake him for supper it was found that he was dead. A physician was called, and the verdict rendered by the Coroner's jury that death was caused by sunstroke. The deceased had in his possession $119 05 in currency, and a few other things. Mr. Thompson was formerly a member of the firm of Frazer & Thompson, and leaves a family to mourn his loss.

Coroner L. Samelson also held an inquest on the body of James Sweeney on Main street, near the corner of Market. The deceased was a laborer, and the Coroner's jury rendered a verdict that death was caused by drinking and overheating.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. Blair has removed his office from corner of Adams and Second streets to No. 225 Main street, Worsham House Block. jy21 1w

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Revival of the Memphis Medical College—Resignation of Alderman Powers—Petitions, Etc., Etc.

Yesterday was a decidedly warm day, and the notice that there was to be a called meeting of the Board must have been unpleasant to more than one City Father. There was a very good attendance, however, only three or four Aldermen being absent.

The Board was called to order by Alderman Johnson, when Alderman Ruffin was called to the chair.

Bids for supplying stone culverts were read, as follows: H. Wheatley, $2 per lineal foot; James Ryan, $2 75; P. Smith, $3 80; Charles Jones, $3 80; Jos. Harris, $3 15; M. Ford, $2 74; Robert Allen, $2 65. The bid of Mr. Wheatley being the lowest, it was accepted by the Board.

The resignation of Alderman J. J. Powers, recently elected County Trustee, was read and accepted.

A petition was presented from Father Kelly, requesting permission to put a shingle roof on a brick building to be used for school purposes, the same being within the fire limits. The petition was granted.

The Sanitary Police petitioned for board and lodging for their horses in the city stables during the sickly season, the duties of the police being very arduous. A lively debate followed, in which several of the Aldermen gave their views on economy. The petition was finally referred to the Finance Committee.

Alderman Cicalla offered a resolution that the Street Commissioner under the direction of the City Engineer, be ordered to remove the fence in front of Mrs. Gray's property. Adopted.

A. C. Kirwan, who is putting up a grist mill on Union street near the bayou, petitioned to be allowed to put a frame shed over the machinery, etc. Referred to the Fire Committee.

Alderman Brown presented a petition from several medical gentlemen and the trustees of the Memphis Medical College, requesting the restoration of the rooms in the Exchange Building formerly used by the faculty of the College, who propose to make extensive improvements and fit up the building for the reception of students by the fall, inaugurating medical lectures, etc., and reestablishing the City Dispensary as it existed before the war.

Alderman Moffatt wished to know if it would cost the city anything, when Alderman Brown replied that it would not.

Alderman Mageveney spoke in praise of the faculty of the College, and the advantages that would accrue to the city from the re establishment of the College, after which the petition was unanimously granted.

After some other business had been transacted, Alderman Brown introduced a resolution granting the use of the rooms desired by the Memphis Medical College for ten years.

Alderman Moffatt objected, and moved that the resolution be referred to the Hospital Committee. A lively debate ensued, and the matter was finally settled by being referred to a special committee of five with power to act, and report to the Board. Aldermen Brown, Moffatt, Renner, Mageveney and Johnson constitute the committee.

Alderman Holst offered a resolution for the removal of the steam fire engine from Poplar street to the No 7 engine house on Desoto street, which was adopted.

The Improvement Committee, by resolution, was ordered to have the frame buildings, corner of Calhoun and Main streets, removed, for the purpose of widening the street, arrangements having been made for the purchase of the ground at a reasonable rate.

A petition from Mr. McGinniss, in regard to loss by city scrip, was referred to the Committee on Claims.

Several petitions for the erection of frame houses within the fire limits, were referred to the Fire Committee; after which the Board adjourned.

Communications were read from Dr. H. M. Acree, of Clarksville, and Dr. Emmerson, expressing regret at being unable to be present.

The committee reported favorably upon the admission of the following candidates for membership, who were unanimously elected: L. Augspath, of Helena, Ark.; W. M. R. Johns, of Somerville, Tenn.; E. S. Chisholm, of Tuscumbia, Ala.; Wm. Wasson, S. Hinson, E. W. Sawyer and V. F. Elliott, of Memphis.

The evening session was taken up with an interesting discussion on the various diseases of the gums, after which the Association adjourned until this evening.

RADICAL CONVENTION.—The Radicals held what they call a mass meeting and convention at the Greenlaw Opera House, last night, for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend the Congressional Convention which is to be held at Brownsville to-morrow, and to select delegates to the Radical Convention at Nashville, which meets on the 12th of August. It being a very warm evening, we did not feel inclined to go early and see all the show, but dropped in about ten o'clock. Barbour Lewis was in the chair, or rather standing on the stage, with a big club in his hand, which he rapped repeatedly on the floor, exclaiming: "Order, gentlemen!" But the gentlemen would not keep order. They kept yelling and howling, whenever they pleased, regardless of the sweet words of the chairman and the motions of the colored lights at his side. A. K. Davis, a colored friend of Dave Nunn, attempted to speak, but was hooted down, amid unearthly yells for Smith. A Col. Mitchell was introduced by the chairman, after considerable rapping and "order, gentlemen." The chairman said Col. Mitchell was true to the party, and should be listened to; he had not been bought and sold. Big yelling followed, and the negro Davis, with considerable emphasis, denounced as a liar any man who said he had been bought. He shook his fist close to several noses, and we looked for a general fight, but the big club and "order, gentlemen," finally produced a lull, when a resolution indorsing and instructing the delegates in favor of Brevet Brig.-Gen. Hardeman W. J. Smith was carried. As we left, H. E. Hudson, County attorney, was reading about seventeen yards of resolutions, which indorsed Grant and Colfax, thanked the Democratic party for nominating Seymour, denounced all Southern men as assassins, traitors, etc., who were endeavoring to get in office to destroy the Government. The Opera House was crowded, nearly all being negroes. A few white faces were on the stage, most of whom stood back and let the colored gentlemen be in front. We took a glance at the so-called white men on the stage, and did not see a face belonging to any one who did not hold an office and was feeding on city or county pap.

THE COURTS.

LAW COURT—James O. Pierce, Judge. The cases set for trial to-day are from Nos. 794 to 1000 inclusive. On yesterday the cases from No. 760 to 793 were disposed of. Several jury trials of minor importance were had—judgments for small amounts being recovered.

CRIMINAL COURT—Wm. Hunter, Judge.—In the case of the State vs. Thomas Leonard, indictment for embezzlement, a motion to quash was argued on yesterday, and the motion was sustained by the Court. It is supposed that this disposition will be the end of the case, as it is generally conceded that the indictment for embezzlement could not be sustained against Judge Leonard before a jury. To-day the case of the State vs. James Brown, indictment for murder, has been specially set for trial.

BANKRUPTCY COURT—T. J. Latham, Register.—A final discharge in bankruptcy was issued on yesterday to J. C. Dougherty.

CHANCERY COURT—A. Alston, Clerk and Master.—The Clerk and Master will take an account to-day in the case of Pope et al vs. Perdue et al.

MUNICIPAL COURT—Geo. W. Waldran, Judge—stands adjourned until Friday next.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

A short time since there was a grand tournament at Central Park, the proceeds of which were to be donated to the relief of the widows and orphans of the Lost Cause; and I have noticed the papers for a statement of the receipts and expenditures, but none has appeared. I would be pleased for you to call upon the managers to make a statement of the receipts and disbursements, that those who contributed may know how much of the money reached the widows and orphans in whose behalf the tournament was held. INQUISITIVE.

AS USUAL, Emmons & Son, last night received a large lot of new reading matter—Leslie's Magazine for August, Record, Jolly Joker for August, Merryman for August, Album, Sporting Times, Turf, Wilkes', Waverly, London Society for July, St. Paul's (a London magazine) for July, Lippincott for August, London Lancet for July, Phrenological Journal for August, London Builder for June, Every Saturday for July, all the dailies, and Harpers' Bazar again for the ladies.

OLD FOLKS AT HOME.—I am directed to say that all gentlemen will be required to wear a badge, as none will be admitted without. M. C. Cayce, John W. Badges can also be had at the railroad depot before the departure of the trains.

POLICE ITEMS.

—Lucy Boyd stole a dress from Lizzie Reed, for which appropriation 'Squire Black requested her to contribute two dollars to the county cash-box.

—'Squire Black issued a peace warrant at the instance of Stephen Grayson, against Jack Davis. The latter threatened to tax the friends of the former to the extent of a coffin, but Steve objects to being a burden upon his admirers in this way, and wants to drop a check into the ballot-box in preference to passing up all his checks. Jack will be bound over to day.

—'Squire Walton was constrained to put Hattie Donaldson and Mollie Williams under bonds of $500 each, to answer at the Criminal Court, on the charge of perjury. They swore to what they should not, and will learn that an oath before a magistrate is not as simple an affair as one upon the street. The complainants and defendants in all the above cases were of the same color as those who met to pow-wow and talk about Grant and the Kukluxes at the Opera House last night.

—There were eight arrests in the First District up to midnight—five negroes and three whites, all for trivial offenses.

—Five arrests were reported up to 8 o'clock in the Second District—three negroes and two whites.

EIGHTH WARD.—The citizens of the Eighth Ward are notified to attend a meeting of the Eighth Ward Democratic Club, at 8 o'clock this evening, opposite the Market House. Business of importance will be transacted, and it is desired that there should be a large attendance. By order of the President.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC CLUB OF THE SIXTH WARD.—The members of this Club and those citizens who are desirous to join it, are requested to meet in the Waldran Block this evening at eight o'clock, to hear the various reports of committees and other important business connected with the organization. By order of the President.
J. J. PERES, Secretary.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE FIRST WARD!—A First Ward Democratic Club was organized on Monday evening, 20th inst. The regular meetings of this club will be held every Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, in the hall of No. — engine house. All the citizens of this ward are cordially invited to attend the meetings of this club and enrol their names as members. It is of the utmost importance that the Democracy should organize for the coming Presidential campaign. Should the Radicals succeed, then freemen, your last chance at the ballot-box is forever gone! Rouse up, then, Democrats! Come up and join the club! And when the ides of November set in, let us be prepared to poll against the Radicals a full vote of the glorious old First Ward! Let the Radicals feel the "Pinch!"

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

ST. LOUIS, July 21.—The river is falling here and all the upper streams are declining.

LOUISVILLE, July 21.—The river is falling with four feet in the canal by the mark. The weather is cloudy with indications of rain. Thermometer, 98°.

MEMPHIS, July 22.—Weather warm, with occasional showers. The river at this point has taken a turn and is swelling slowly, having gone up 2 inches in the past 24 hours. We have no later news from the Arkansas or White rivers than given in our last.

Arrivals.

Steamer W. R. Arthur, St. Louis.
" Laura, St. Louis.
" Darling, Cincinnati.
" Natoma, Friar's Point.
" W. A. Caldwell, Ark. river.

Departures.

Steamer Arthur, New Orleans.
" Laura, White river.
" Commercial, White river.
" M. Hambleton, St. F. river.

In Port.

Natoma, Darling, W. A. Caldwell.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Commercial and Mollie Hambleton went out with very fair trips for the season.

The Darling came in last evening from Cincinnati.

The Laura arrived from St. Louis light, bound for White river for a load of lumber.

The Arthur passed down with all the freight she wanted.

An arrangement is about being perfected which will cause quite a change in the future operations of some of our local packets.

The Marble City, Capt. Conway, leaves to-morrow for Cairo and St. Louis.

The handsome U. S. mail steamer W. A. Caldwell will be found in port this morning, and leaves for Little Rock and way points to morrow evening. Rube Haynes is master, and Jack Chambers, "the silent," is chief clerk.

The splendid steamer Natoma, Capt. Jim Lee, will be in port this morning, and leaves at 5 p.m. for Friar's Point and all way landings. She is now the finest of our local packets. Fields, Whitehead and Lee are her secretaries.

It is not often that we have to record a piece of heartlessness on the part of steamboatmen, but when we do, we are pretty sure to ventilate it. Many of our citizens remember an old steamboat mate named Carnagie, who at one time was employed on the St. Louis wharfboat at our levee. He lost his leg while following the stars and bars in the army of Northern Virginia, and recently, by a fall, was compelled to suffer a second amputation. He yesterday applied to Capt. Pat. Yore, of the W. R. Arthur, for passage to his friends in New Orleans, and was refused. We are satisfied that the officers of the Atlantic line would not indorse the action of Capt. Yore in thus refusing passage to a brother boatman in distress. It was one of the most heartless acts we have ever heard of, and if it wins any fame for the Captain, we hope he will credit us for making it public.

The Darling will leave this evening for Cairo and Cincinnati. She is one of the best boats plying the Ohio river, and will go through without delay. Capt. Lew Kates is master, and Mr. Power, clerk.

The Ruth is due up this morning.

Sam Shock weighs a ton. His trip improved him.

Jim Durff weighs much less. His trip didn't help him.

Cincinnati lager is not conducive to good health.

Capt. M. W. Kenny, of the Tarpaulin Depot, did not take his dogs to New York. They are so pretty he feared to lose them.

The "Knights of the Skid" will meet at their usual place to-day. Matt Glass, secretary.

The Louisville re-shipped 200 tons of freight at Cairo, and has laid up there.

A pilot named Clark, who has a family in St. Louis, was arrested at Cincinnati on Sunday, for causing the ruin of a young lady passenger on the steamer Charmer.

The Columbia has arrived at St. Louis from the mountains. She brought $50,000 in gold.

The Mollie Able is on the docks at St. Louis. She struck a bank and sprung her butts.

The Mississippi will have cotton guards when she comes into this trade.

A large number of steamers are laid up at St. Louis, many of them were never fitted for any trade.

The total tonnage of vessels belonging to the port of St. Louis, steam vessels, is 82,876 60. The number of vessels is about 200. The total tonnage of the barges is 28,572 05. The number of vessels built during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1868, is 16, tonnage 5129 63. The vessels lost during the same time belonging to the port of St. Louis is given at 26, with nearly 12,000 tonnage.

"Life saving suits" have been invented, which will be adopted by the Government, and placed upon all seagoing vessels. The apparatus consists of a cork jacket, which being adjusted and the rubber suit slipped over the wearer's dress, covering the whole body, with the exception of the face and hands, protects the wearer and such valuables as he may have on his person, and keeps him comfortable and free from cramps. The shoe weights keep him in an erect position in the water, and the hand devices enable him to propel himself to shore or any other place of safety. Attached to the suit, by a long cord, is a buoyant apparatus, which contains provisions and fresh water enough to last eight days, so that a person will be enabled to keep floating upon the surface of the water and sustain life during that time. By an ingenious arrangement a flag or device can be floated six feet above the apparatus to direct the attention of passing vessels.

TWENTY-SECOND DAY—Wednesday—Sun rises 5:06; sets 7:07.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The meeting of delegates to select a Congressman and Electors for the Eighth District of Tennessee, will be held at Brownsville on the 10th of August.

LETTER BY THE WAY.—This letter, which should have made its appearance in our columns yesterday, was unavoidably crowded out. It will be found in another column.

DEAD.—The man Irwin, who was wounded in a difficulty at Randolph, on Friday last, mention of which was made in the APPEAL on Sunday, died on Monday. He was of notoriously bad character.

LOCAL EDITOR TURNED PREACHER. We learn that J. A. Dacus, local editor of the Memphis Argus during the war, has become a Baptist preacher, and is holding forth in the State of Illinois.

STOCK STEALING.—The gentlemen who confiscate other people's animals have been attending to business lately. J. M. Hall, on the Hollyford road, has lost a mule; Dr. Harris, on the State Line road, a fine cow; and H. M. Jones, 535 Shelby street, a bay horse.

ARRESTED.—The Louisville Journal of Monday says:

Mary Connor, "a colored lady from Memphis," was picked up yesterday in New Albany by Detective Bruster and nearly a thousand dollars' worth of stolen jewelry found upon her person. She was conveyed back to the Bluff City.

OLD FOLKS PICNIC.—The annual picnic and barbecue of the "Old Folks," takes place to-morrow at Bartlett's Station, and promises to be as fine an affair as that of last season. There will doubtless be a big turnout. Trains will run at short intervals during the day, for the accommodation of the picnicers. The fare will be fifty cents for the round trip.

NEWS.—"Go away from home to hear the news." We find the following telegraphic news in the Cincinnati Commercial of the 20th:

MEMPHIS, July 18.—Last night was the hottest known here by the oldest inhabitants. The mercury at 2 o'clock in the morning stood at 96°.

MEMPHIS, July 19.—Mercury ranged from 92° to 100°. Eight deaths from excessive heat, during the past twenty-four hours.

JUVENILE TOURNAMENT.—The young folks are having some amusement in the tournament line in South Memphis. There was one held yesterday, in the neighborhood of Main and Pontotoc streets, at which most of the forms of the tourney were observed, a Queen of Love and Beauty being crowned, etc. Male and female knights contended for the prizes, and all tilted on foot, the proceedings winding up with a grand ball in the evening.

HYDROPHOBIA.—The heated term is upon us, and at least one mad dog is said to have been killed upon our streets. It would, therefore, be well for our readers to know that horseradish and sweet oil—a tablespoonful of this mixture as often as it can be swallowed and retained on the stomach, together with a poultice of the same over the wound—has proved a prompt and perfect cure for this appalling malady, in several instances—indeed, all in which it has been tried so far as known. It is more convenient than mercury, and as simple as cabbage-leaf for preventing sun stroke.

BETRAYED CONFIDENCE.—Three darkies were arrested yesterday by Officer Walsh, for inveigling another anti-Kuklux into a little confidence game, by which the latter gained some valuable information, but at greater cost than he thought was right. The seeker after knowledge, as well as the colored cusses who caused him to become disgusted with his race, will make their appearance before the Commissioner this morning, and should the accused not prove to be shining lights of the Loyal League, they will be fed at the expense of the city until they are wanted to cast their votes in November next for the silent God of the Radicals.

THE HEATED TERM.—We are pained to announce the death of W. G. Thompson, Esq., one of our most eminent members of the bar. It seems that he came to town yesterday about 4 p.m., and entering the house of Mr. Mayer under the Exchange Building, called for water to cool his head. He shortly afterwards sat down at a table and resting his head on his arm, apparently went to sleep. Upon attempting to wake him for supper it was found that he was dead. A physician was called, and the verdict rendered by the Coroner's jury that death was caused by sunstroke. The deceased had in his possession $119 05 in currency, and a few other things. Mr. Thompson was formerly a member of the firm of Frazer & Thompson, and leaves a family to mourn his loss.

Coroner L. Samelson also held an inquest on the body of James Sweeney on Main street, near the corner of Market. The deceased was a laborer, and the Coroner's jury rendered a verdict that death was caused by drinking and overheating.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. Blair has removed his office from corner of Adams and Second streets to No. 225 Main street, Worsham House Block. jy21 1w

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Revival of the Memphis Medical College—Resignation of Alderman Powers—Petitions, Etc., Etc.

Yesterday was a decidedly warm day, and the notice that there was to be a called meeting of the Board must have been unpleasant to more than one City Father. There was a very good attendance, however, only three or four Aldermen being absent.

The Board was called to order by Alderman Johnson, when Alderman Ruffin was called to the chair.

Bids for supplying stone culverts were read, as follows: H. Wheatley, $2 per lineal foot; James Ryan, $2 75; P. Smith, $3 80; Charles Jones, $3 80; Jos. Harris, $3 15; M. Ford, $2 74; Robert Allen, $2 65. The bid of Mr. Wheatley being the lowest, it was accepted by the Board.

The resignation of Alderman J. J. Powers, recently elected County Trustee, was read and accepted.

A petition was presented from Father Kelly, requesting permission to put a shingle roof on a brick building to be used for school purposes, the same being within the fire limits. The petition was granted.

The Sanitary Police petitioned for board and lodging for their horses in the city stables during the sickly season, the duties of the police being very arduous. A lively debate followed, in which several of the Aldermen gave their views on economy. The petition was finally referred to the Finance Committee.

Alderman Cicalla offered a resolution that the Street Commissioner under the direction of the City Engineer, be ordered to remove the fence in front of Mrs. Gray's property. Adopted.

A. C. Kirwan, who is putting up a grist mill on Union street near the bayou, petitioned to be allowed to put a frame shed over the machinery, etc. Referred to the Fire Committee.

Alderman Brown presented a petition from several medical gentlemen and the trustees of the Memphis Medical College, requesting the restoration of the rooms in the Exchange Building formerly used by the faculty of the College, who propose to make extensive improvements and fit up the building for the reception of students by the fall, inaugurating medical lectures, etc., and re-establishing the City Dispensary as it existed before the war.

Alderman Moffatt wished to know if it would cost the city anything, when Alderman Brown replied that it would not.

Alderman Mageveney spoke in praise of the faculty of the College, and the advantages that would accrue to the city from the re establishment of the College, after which the petition was unanimously granted.

After some other business had been transacted, Alderman Brown introduced a resolution granting the use of the rooms desired by the Memphis Medical College for ten years.

Alderman Moffatt objected, and moved that the resolution be referred to the Hospital Committee. A lively debate ensued, and the matter was finally settled by being referred to a special committee of five with power to act, and report to the Board. Aldermen Brown, Moffatt, Renner, Mageveney and Johnson constitute the committee.

Alderman Holst offered a resolution for the removal of the steam fire engine from Poplar street to the No 7 engine house on Desoto street, which was adopted.

The Improvement Committee, by resolution, was ordered to have the frame buildings, corner of Calhoun and Main streets, removed, for the purpose of widening the street, arrangements having been made for the purchase of the ground at a reasonable rate.

A petition from Mr. McGinniss, in regard to loss by city scrip, was referred to the Committee on Claims.

Several petitions for the erection of frame houses within the fire limits, were referred to the Fire Committee; after which the Board adjourned.

DENTAL CONVENTION.

Annual Meeting of the Tennessee Dental Association.

The Tennessee Dental Association convened in this city yesterday morning at the office of Dr. Arrington. Dr. W. H. Morgan, of Nashville, presided; S. J. Cobb, of Nashville, E. C. Ford, of Somerville, J. B. Wasson, W. T. Arrington and G. W. Acree, of Memphis, being also present.

The minutes of the last meeting, held at Jackson, Tenn., in December last, were read and approved. Reports of officers were received and filed.

Reports from various committees were received treating upon the following subjects: Physiology, by Dr. W. D. Tucker; Microscopical Anatomy, by Dr. W. Farrington; Dental Education, by Dr. J. A. Arrington; Diseases of the Teeth and Alvealo Abscess, by Dr. H. M. Acree; Adhesive Gold, by Dr. R. Russell; Pathology, Histology and Dental Medicines, by Dr. W. R. Johnson; Appliances for Regulating Teeth, by Dr. J. B. Wasson; Metalic Plates, by Dr. G. W. Acree; Rubber Plates, by Dr. E. C. Ford; Continuous Gum, by Dr. Alex. Hartman; Dental Chemistry, by Dr. M. McCarty.

The President appointed Drs. Ford, Wasson and Cobb, a Committee on Membership.

Communications were read from Dr. H. M. Acree, of Clarksville, and Dr. Emmerson, expressing regret at being unable to be present.

The committee reported favorably upon the admission of the following candidates for membership, who were unanimously elected: L. Augspath, of Helena, Ark.; W. M. R. Johns, of Somerville, Tenn.; E. S. Chisholm, of Tuscumbia, Ala.; Wm. Wasson, S. Hinson, E. W. Sawyer and V. F. Elliott, of Memphis.

The evening session was taken up with an interesting discussion on the various diseases of the gums, after which the Association adjourned until this evening.

RADICAL CONVENTION.—The Radicals held what they call a mass meeting and convention at the Greenlaw Opera House, last night, for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend the Congressional Convention which is to be held at Brownsville to-morrow, and to select delegates to the Radical Convention at Nashville, which meets on the 12th of August. It being a very warm evening, we did not feel inclined to go early and see all the show, but dropped in about ten o'clock. Barbour Lewis was in the chair, or rather standing on the stage, with a big club in his hand, which he rapped repeatedly on the floor, exclaiming: "Order, gentlemen!" But the gentlemen would not keep order. They kept yelling and howling, whenever they pleased, regardless of the sweet words of the chairman and the motions of the colored lights at his side. A. K. Davis, a colored friend of Dave Nunn, attempted to speak, but was hooted down, amid unearthly yells for Smith. A Col. Mitchell was introduced by the chairman, after considerable rapping and "order, gentlemen." The chairman said Col. Mitchell was true to the party, and should be listened to; he had not been bought and sold. Big yelling followed, and the negro Davis, with considerable emphasis, denounced as a liar any man who said he had been bought. He shook his fist close to several noses, and we looked for a general fight, but the big club and "order, gentlemen," finally produced a lull, when a resolution indorsing and instructing the delegates in favor of Brevet Brig.-Gen. Hardeman W. J. Smith was carried. As we left, H. E. Hudson, County attorney, was reading about seventeen yards of resolutions, which indorsed Grant and Colfax, thanked the Democratic party for nominating Seymour, denounced all Southern men as assassins, traitors, etc., who were endeavoring to get in office to destroy the Government. The Opera House was crowded, nearly all being negroes. A few white faces were on the stage, most of whom stood back and let the colored gentlemen be in front. We took a glance at the so-called white men on the stage, and did not see a face belonging to any one who did not hold an office and was feeding on city or county pap.

THE COURTS.

LAW COURT—James O. Pierce, Judge. The cases set for trial to-day are from Nos. 794 to 1000 inclusive. On yesterday the cases from No. 760 to 793 were disposed of. Several jury trials of minor importance were had—judgments for small amounts being recovered.

CRIMINAL COURT—Wm. Hunter, Judge.—In the case of the State vs. Thomas Leonard, indictment for embezzlement, a motion to quash was argued on yesterday, and the motion was sustained by the Court. It is supposed that this disposition will be the end of the case, as it is generally conceded that the indictment for embezzlement could not be sustained against Judge Leonard before a jury. To-day the case of the State vs. James Brown, indictment for murder, has been specially set for trial.

BANKRUPTCY COURT—T. J. Latham, Register.—A final discharge in bankruptcy was issued on yesterday to J. C. Dougherty.

CHANCERY COURT—A. Alston, Clerk and Master.—The Clerk and Master will take an account to-day in the case of Pope et al vs. Perdue et al.

MUNICIPAL COURT—Geo. W. Waldran, Judge—stands adjourned until Friday next.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

A short time since there was a grand tournament at Central Park, the proceeds of which were to be donated to the relief of the widows and orphans of the Lost Cause; and I have noticed the papers for a statement of the receipts and expenditures, but none has appeared. I would be pleased for you to call upon the managers to make a statement of the receipts and disbursements, that those who contributed may know how much of the money reached the widows and orphans in whose behalf the tournament was held. POLICE ITEMS.

—Lucy Boyd stole a dress from Lizzie Reed, for which appropriation 'Squire Black requested her to contribute two dollars to the county cash-box.

—'Squire Black issued a peace warrant at the instance of Stephen Grayson, against Jack Davis. The latter threatened to tax the friends of the former to the extent of a coffin, but Steve objects to being a burden upon his admirers in this way, and wants to drop a check into the ballot-box in preference to passing up all his checks. Jack will be bound over to day.

—'Squire Walton was constrained to put Hattie Donaldson and Mollie Williams under bonds of $500 each, to answer at the Criminal Court, on the charge of perjury. They swore to what they should not, and will learn that an oath before a magistrate is not as simple an affair as one upon the street. The complainants and defendants in all the above cases were of the same color as those who met to pow-wow and talk about Grant and the Kukluxes at the Opera House last night.

—There were eight arrests in the First District up to midnight—five negroes and three whites, all for trivial offenses.

—Five arrests were reported up to 8 o'clock in the Second District—three negroes and two whites.

EIGHTH WARD.—The citizens of the Eighth Ward are notified to attend a meeting of the Eighth Ward Democratic Club, at 8 o'clock this evening, opposite the Market House. Business of importance will be transacted, and it is desired that there should be a large attendance. By order of the President.
J. MUSSO, JR., Secretary.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC CLUB OF THE SIXTH WARD.—The members of this Club and those citizens who are desirous to join it, are requested to meet in the Waldran Block this evening at eight o'clock, to hear the various reports of committees and other important business connected with the organization. By order of the President.
J. J. PERES, Secretary.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE FIRST WARD!—A First Ward Democratic Club was organized on Monday evening, 20th inst. The regular meetings of this club will be held every Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, in the hall of No. — engine house. All the citizens of this ward are cordially invited to attend the meetings of this club and enrol their names as members. It is of the utmost importance that the Democracy should organize for the coming Presidential campaign. Should the Radicals succeed, then freemen, your last chance at the ballot-box is forever gone! Rouse up, then, Democrats! Come up and join the club! And when the ides of November set in, let us be prepared to poll against the Radicals a full vote of the glorious old First Ward! Let the Radicals feel the "Pinch!"
JOHN E. RANDLE, President.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

ST. LOUIS, July 21.—The river is falling here and all the upper streams are declining.

LOUISVILLE, July 21.—The river is falling with four feet in the canal by the mark. The weather is cloudy with indications of rain. Thermometer, 98°.

MEMPHIS, July 22.—Weather warm, with occasional showers. The river at this point has taken a turn and is swelling slowly, having gone up 2 inches in the past 24 hours. We have no later news from the Arkansas or White rivers than given in our last.

Arrivals.

Steamer W. R. Arthur, St. Louis.
" Laura, St. Louis.
" Darling, Cincinnati.
" Natoma, Friar's Point.
" W. A. Caldwell, Ark. river.

Departures.

Steamer Arthur, New Orleans.
" Laura, White river.
" Commercial, White river.
" M. Hambleton, St. F. river.

In Port.

Natoma, Darling, W. A. Caldwell.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Commercial and Mollie Hambleton went out with very fair trips for the season.

The Darling came in last evening from Cincinnati.

The Laura arrived from St. Louis light, bound for White river for a load of lumber.

The Arthur passed down with all the freight she wanted.

An arrangement is about being perfected which will cause quite a change in the future operations of some of our local packets.

The Marble City, Capt. Conway, leaves to-morrow for Cairo and St. Louis.

The handsome U. S. mail steamer W. A. Caldwell will be found in port this morning, and leaves for Little Rock and way points to-morrow evening. Rube Haynes is master, and Jack Chambers, "the silent," is chief clerk.

The splendid steamer Natoma, Capt. Jim Lee, will be in port this morning, and leaves at 5 p.m. for Friar's Point and all way landings. She is now the finest of our local packets. Fields, Whitehead and Lee are her secretaries.

It is not often that we have to record a piece of heartlessness on the part of steamboatmen, but when we do, we are pretty sure to ventilate it. Many of our citizens remember an old steamboat mate named Carnagie, who at one time was employed on the St. Louis wharfboat at our levee. He lost his leg while following the stars and bars in the army of Northern Virginia, and recently, by a fall, was compelled to suffer a second amputation. He yesterday applied to Capt. Pat. Yore, of the W. R. Arthur, for passage to his friends in New Orleans, and was refused. We are satisfied that the officers of the Atlantic line would not indorse the action of Capt. Yore in thus refusing passage to a brother boatman in distress. It was one of the most heartless acts we have ever heard of, and if it wins any fame for the Captain, we hope he will credit us for making it public.

The Darling will leave this evening for Cairo and Cincinnati. She is one of the best boats plying the Ohio river, and will go through without delay. Capt. Lew Kates is master, and Mr. Power, clerk.

The Ruth is due up this morning.

Sam Shock weighs a ton. His trip improved him.

Jim Dorff weighs much less. His trip didn't help him.

Cincinnati lager is not conducive to good health.

Capt. M. W. Kenny, of the Tarpaulin Depot, did not take his dogs to New York. They are so pretty he feared to lose them.

The "Knights of the Skid" will meet at their usual place to-day. Matt Glass, secretary.

The Louisville re-shipped 200 tons of freight at Cairo, and has laid up there.

A pilot named Clark, who has a family in St. Louis, was arrested at Cincinnati on Sunday, for causing the ruin of a young lady passenger on the steamer Charmer.

The Columbia has arrived at St. Louis from the mountains. She brought $50,000 in gold.

The Mollie Able is on the docks at St. Louis. She struck a bank and sprung her butts.

The Mississippi will have cotton guards when she comes into this trade.

A large number of steamers are laid up at St. Louis, many of them were never fitted for any trade.

The total tonnage of vessels belonging to the port of St. Louis, steam vessels, is 82,876 60. The number of vessels is about 200. The total tonnage of the barges is 28,572 05. The number of vessels built during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1868, is 16, tonnage 5129 63. The vessels lost during the same time belonging to the port of St. Louis is given at 26, with nearly 12,000 tonnage.

"Life saving suits" have been invented, which will be adopted by the Government, and placed upon all sea-going vessels. The apparatus consists of a cork jacket, which being adjusted and the rubber suit slipped over the wearer's dress, covering the whole body, with the exception of the face and hands, protects the wearer and such valuables as he may have on his person, and keeps him comfortable and free from cramps. The shoe weights keep him in an erect position in the water, and the hand devices enable him to propel himself to shore or any other place of safety. Attached to the suit, by a long cord, is a buoyant apparatus, which contains provisions and fresh water enough to last eight days, so that a person will be enabled to keep floating upon the surface of the water and sustain life during that time. By an ingenious arrangement a flag or device can be floated six feet above the apparatus to direct the attention of passing vessels.

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep5 d&wly

IMPORTANT to PLANTERS.

FRIAR'S POINT, MISS., June 10, 1868.

Messrs. MANSFIELD & HIGBEE,

Druggists, Memphis, Tennessee:

GENTLEMEN: You ask me for my statement relative to your cure for ERYSIPELAS or CHARBONE IN HORSES and MULES, which you style

"MAGIC ARNICA LINIMENT."

I have used your Liniment in about two dozen cases with perfect success. I had lost all hope of a remedy, but believe your discovery "THE REMEDY." I have not failed in a single case in which I have applied your Liniment. I believe it a valuable discovery. Think every planter should provide himself with the Magic Arnica Liniment. No planter should be without your remedy where this terrible disease prevails. I have supplied each of my plantations. My supervisors report favorable upon every trial.

Very respectfully, yours, etc.,

J. L. ALCORN.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, July 21, 1868.

This was one of the dullest days of the season in our general markets. Very few planters have as yet had leisure to visit the city, and business is confined to small orders. The Arkansas and White river packets as well as the St. Francis river packets, generally bring in a large number of these, but the aggregate of shipments from this port are not satisfactory even for the season. While trade in the city, however, is light, our planters will be in a better condition this year than at any time since the war. The present crop will be made at less outlay than any ever raised in the South, and while it has taught the planter that he can raise a crop at less expense than formerly, it will leave them a handsome surplus to apply to the wiping out of debts contracted in preceding years.

Money matters are very quiet. While there are orders upon the market for stocks and bonds to a large amount, there is none offering. The only transaction reported to-day was a sale of $9000 city bonds indorsed by the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, at 63½c. City bonds are in demand at 54@55c, but no sellers. We quote nominally as follows: Memphis and Charleston railroad stock, 53c. Memphis Gas Company stock, $1 50; Mississippi Central Railroad, 1st mortgage bonds, 58c; 2d do. 40c. Mississippi and Tennessee, 1st mortgage bonds, 50c. Memphis and Louisville 1st mortgage bonds, 30@31c; 2d do. 20c. Memphis and Little Rock bonds, 40c.

The following are the New York quotations for Government securities to-day: Coupons '81, 15; do '62, 14¼; do '64, 11¼; do '65, 12¼; new issue, 9½; do '67, 9⅝; 10-40s, 8¼; 7-30s, 2d and 3d, 9; Old Tennessees, 67; new do 66½. Government bonds steady.

Gold is again in the ascendant, opening in New York at 142⅞, and closing at 143. Outside a few small amounts offered to-day we have nothing to report in the coin market. Brokers buy at 141 to 141½. There is no local demand. Dealers would sell at 142@142½.

There was a better inquiry for City Scrip to-day, though no important sales occurred. Dealers were offering 70@73c. Selling at 75@77c.

County Warrants show some signs of reaction from the dullness which has characterized them for some weeks back. One broker is on the market and would take from $25,000 to $50,000 at 50@52c. There is very little offering, however. Selling at 55@56c.

Police Scrip is dull and nominal. Buying at 70@72c. Selling at 73@75c.

The Liverpool cotton market was heavy at the opening to-day. Uplands, 10¾d; Orleans, 11⅛d. It was also heavy at 2 p.m., and prices lower. Uplands, 10¾d@10⅞d; Orleans, 11@11⅛d, closing nominally unchanged. Sales, 6000 bales.

In New York at the opening the market was quiet and weak, with prices nominally as follows: Low Middling, 30c; Middlings, 31½@32c; Orleans, 32@32½c; Good Middlings, 33c. At noon uplands were quoted at 31½c, and at the close prices were unchanged, with market dull. Sales, 10,000 bales. There was not a ripple on the calm surface of this market during the day. Upon inquiry from the three or four holders as to whether they have sold, the stereotyped "No!" is heard. Had you an offer? "No!" What are you holding at today? "Well, I don't know; I have a few bales of Low Middlings for which I would take 30c." This is the substance of an hour or two of diligent inquiry.

TWENTY-SECOND DAY—Wednesday.—Sun rises 5:06; sets 7:07.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The meeting of delegates to select a Congressman and Electors for the Eighth District of Tennessee, will be held at Brownsville on the 10th of August.

LETTER BY THE WAY.—This letter, which should have made its appearance in our columns yesterday, was unavoidably crowded out. It will be found in another column.

DEAD.—The man Irwin, who was wounded in a difficulty at Randolph, on Friday last, mention of which was made in the APPEAL on Sunday, died on Monday. He was of notoriously bad character.

LOCAL EDITOR TURNED PREACHER. We learn that J. A. Dacus, local editor of the Memphis Argus during the war, has become a Baptist preacher, and is holding forth in the State of Illinois.

STOCK STEALING.—The gentlemen who confiscate other people's animals have been attending to business lately. J. M. Hall, on the Hollyford road, has lost a mule; Dr. Harris, on the State Line road, a fine cow; and H. M. Jones, 535 Shelby street, a bay horse.

ARRESTED.—The Louisville Journal of Monday says:

Mary Connor, "a colored lady from Memphis," was picked up yesterday in New Albany by Detective Bruster and nearly a thousand dollars' worth of stolen jewelry found upon her person. She was conveyed back to the Bluff City.

OLD FOLKS PICNIC.—The annual picnic and barbecue of the "Old Folks," takes place to-morrow at Bartlett's Station, and promises to be as fine an affair as that of last season. There will doubtless be a big turnout. Trains will run at short intervals during the day, for the accommodation of the picnicers. The fare will be fifty cents for the round trip.

NEWS.—"Go away from home to hear the news." We find the following telegraphic news in the Cincinnati Commercial of the 20th:

MEMPHIS, July 18.—Last night was the hottest known here by the oldest inhabitants. The mercury at 2 o'clock in the morning stood at 96°.

MEMPHIS, July 19.—Mercury ranged from 92° to 100°. Eight deaths from excessive heat, during the past twenty-four hours.

JUVENILE TOURNAMENT.—The young folks are having some amusement in the tournament line in South Memphis. There was one held yesterday, in the neighborhood of Main and Pontotoc streets, at which most of the forms of the tourney were observed, a Queen of Love and Beauty being crowned, etc. Male and female knights contended for the prizes, and all tilted on foot, the proceedings winding up with a grand ball in the evening.

HYDROPHOBIA.—The heated term is upon us, and at least one mad dog is said to have been killed upon our streets. It would, therefore, be well for our readers to know that horseradish and sweet oil—a tablespoonful of this mixture as often as it can be swallowed and retained on the stomach, together with a poultice of the same over the wound—has proved a prompt and perfect cure for this appalling malady, in several instances—indeed, all in which it has been tried so far as known. It is more convenient than mercury, and as simple as cabbage-leaf for preventing sun stroke.

BETRAYED CONFIDENCE.—Three darkies were arrested yesterday by Officer Walsh, for inveigling another anti-Kuklux into a little confidence game, by which the latter gained some valuable information, but at greater cost than he thought was right. The seeker after knowledge, as well as the colored cusses who caused him to become disgusted with his race, will make their appearance before the Commissioner this morning, and should the accused not prove to be shining lights of the Loyal League, they will be fed at the expense of the city until they are wanted to cast their votes in November next for the silent God of the Radicals.

THE HEATED TERM.—We are pained to announce the death of W. G. Thompson, Esq., one of our most eminent members of the bar. It seems that he came to town yesterday about 4 p.m., and entering the house of Mr. Mayer under the Exchange Building, called for water to cool his head. He shortly afterwards sat down at a table and resting his head on his arm, apparently went to sleep. Upon attempting to wake him for supper it was found that he was dead. A physician was called, and the verdict rendered by the Coroner's jury that death was caused by sunstroke. The deceased had in his possession $119 05 in currency, and a few other things. Mr. Thompson was formerly a member of the firm of Frazer & Thompson, and leaves a family to mourn his loss.

Coroner L. Samelson also held an inquest on the body of James Sweeney on Main street, near the corner of Market. The deceased was a laborer, and the Coroner's jury rendered a verdict that death was caused by drinking and overheating.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. Blair has removed his office from corner of Adams and Second streets to No. 225 Main street, Worsham House Block. jy21 1w

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Revival of the Memphis Medical College—Resignation of Alderman Powers—Petitions, Etc., Etc.

Yesterday was a decidedly warm day, and the notice that there was to be a called meeting of the Board must have been unpleasant to more than one City Father. There was a very good attendance, however, only three or four Aldermen being absent.

The Board was called to order by Alderman Johnson, when Alderman Ruffin was called to the chair.

Bids for supplying stone culverts were read, as follows: H. Wheatley, $2 per lineal foot; James Ryan, $2 75; P. Smith, $3 80; Charles Jones, $3 80; Jos. Harris, $3 15; M. Ford, $2 74; Robert Allen, $2 65. The bid of Mr. Wheatley being the lowest, it was accepted by the Board.

The resignation of Alderman J. J. Powers, recently elected County Trustee, was read and accepted.

A petition was presented from Father Kelly, requesting permission to put a shingle roof on a brick building to be used for school purposes, the same being within the fire limits. The petition was granted.

The Sanitary Police petitioned for board and lodging for their horses in the city stables during the sickly season, the duties of the police being very arduous. A lively debate followed, in which several of the Aldermen gave their views on economy. The petition was finally referred to the Finance Committee.

Alderman Cicalla offered a resolution that the Street Commissioner under the direction of the City Engineer, be ordered to remove the fence in front of Mrs. Gray's property. Adopted.

A. C. Kirwan, who is putting up a grist mill on Union street near the bayou, petitioned to be allowed to put a frame shed over the machinery, etc. Referred to the Fire Committee.

Alderman Brown presented a petition from several medical gentlemen and the trustees of the Memphis Medical College, requesting the restoration of the rooms in the Exchange Building formerly used by the faculty of the College, who propose to make extensive improvements and fit up the building for the reception of students by the fall, inaugurating medical lectures, etc., and re-establishing the City Dispensary as it existed before the war.

Alderman Moffatt wished to know if it would cost the city anything, when Alderman Brown replied that it would not.

Alderman Mageveney spoke in praise of the faculty of the College, and the advantages that would accrue to the city from the re establishment of the College, after which the petition was unanimously granted.

After some other business had been transacted, Alderman Brown introduced a resolution granting the use of the rooms desired by the Memphis Medical College for ten years.

Alderman Moffatt objected, and moved that the resolution be referred to the Hospital Committee. A lively debate ensued, and the matter was finally settled by being referred to a special committee of five with power to act, and report to the Board. Aldermen Brown, Moffatt, Renner, Mageveney and Johnson constitute the committee.

Alderman Holst offered a resolution for the removal of the steam fire engine from Poplar street to the No 7 engine house on Desoto street, which was adopted.

The Improvement Committee, by resolution, was ordered to have the frame buildings, corner of Calhoun and Main streets, removed, for the purpose of widening the street, arrangements having been made for the purchase of the ground at a reasonable rate.

A petition from Mr. McGinniss, in regard to loss by city scrip, was referred to the Committee on Claims.

Several petitions for the erection of frame houses within the fire limits, were referred to the Fire Committee; after which the Board adjourned.

DENTAL CONVENTION.

Annual Meeting of the Tennessee Dental Association.

The Tennessee Dental Association convened in this city yesterday morning at the office of Dr. Arrington. Dr. W. H. Morgan, of Nashville, presided; S. J. Cobb, of Nashville, E. C. Ford, of Somerville, J. B. Wasson, W. T. Arrington and G. W. Acree, of Memphis, being also present.

The minutes of the last meeting, held at Jackson, Tenn., in December last, were read and approved. Reports of officers were received and filed.

Reports from various committees were received treating upon the following subjects: Physiology, by Dr. W. D. Tucker; Microscopical Anatomy, by Dr. W. Farrington; Dental Education, by Dr. J. A. Arrington; Diseases of the Teeth and Alvealo Abscess, by Dr. H. M. Acree; Adhesive Gold, by Dr. R. Russell; Pathology, Histology and Dental Medicines, by Dr. W. R. Johnson; Appliances for Regulating Teeth, by Dr. J. B. Wasson; Metalic Plates, by Dr. G. W. Acree; Rubber Plates, by Dr. E. C. Ford; Continuous Gum, by Dr. Alex. Hartman; Dental Chemistry, by Dr. M. McCarty.

The President appointed Drs. Ford, Wasson and Cobb, a Committee on Membership.

Communications were read from Dr. H. M. Acree, of Clarksville, and Dr. Emmerson, expressing regret at being unable to be present.

The committee reported favorably upon the admission of the following candidates for membership, who were unanimously elected: L. Augspath, of Helena, Ark.; W. M. R. Johns, of Somerville, Tenn.; E. S. Chisholm, of Tuscumbia, Ala; Wm. Wasson, S. Hinson, E. W. Sawyer and V. F. Elliott, of Memphis.

The evening session was taken up with an interesting discussion on the various diseases of the gums, after which the Association adjourned until this evening.

RADICAL CONVENTION.—The Radicals held what they call a mass meeting and convention at the Greenlaw Opera House, last night, for the purpose of appointing delegates to attend the Congressional Convention which is to be held at Brownsville to-morrow, and to select delegates to the Radical Convention at Nashville, which meets on the 12th of August. It being a very warm evening, we did not feel inclined to go early and see all the show, but dropped in about ten o'clock. Barbour Lewis was in the chair, or rather standing on the stage, with a big club in his hand, which he rapped repeatedly on the floor, exclaiming: "Order, gentlemen!" But the gentlemen would not keep order. They kept yelling and howling, whenever they pleased, regardless of the sweet words of the chairman and the motions of the colored lights at his side. A. K. Davis, a colored friend of Dave Nunn, attempted to speak, but was hooted down, amid unearthly yells for Smith. A Col. Mitchell was introduced by the chairman, after considerable rapping and "order, gentlemen." The chairman said Col. Mitchell was true to the party, and should be listened to; he had not been bought and sold. Big yelling followed, and the negro Davis, with considerable emphasis, denounced as a liar any man who said he had been bought. He shook his fist close to several noses, and we looked for a general fight, but the big club and "order, gentlemen," finally produced a lull, when a resolution indorsing and instructing the delegates in favor of Brevet Brig.-Gen. Hardeman W. J. Smith was carried. As we left, H. E. Hudson, County attorney, was reading about seventeen yards of resolutions, which indorsed Grant and Colfax, thanked the Democratic party for nominating Seymour, denounced all Southern men as assassins, traitors, etc., who were endeavoring to get in office to destroy the Government. The Opera House was crowded, nearly all being negroes. A few white faces were on the stage, most of whom stood back and let the colored gentlemen be in front. We took a glance at the so-called white men on the stage, and did not see a face belonging to any one who did not hold an office and was feeding on city or county pap.

THE COURTS.

LAW COURT—James O. Pierce, Judge. The cases set for trial to-day are from Nos. 794 to 1000 inclusive. On yesterday the cases from No. 760 to 793 were disposed of. Several jury trials of minor importance were had—judgments for small amounts being recovered.

CRIMINAL COURT—Wm. Hunter, Judge.—In the case of the State vs. Thomas Leonard, indictment for embezzlement, a motion to quash was argued on yesterday, and the motion was sustained by the Court. It is supposed that this disposition will be the end of the case, as it is generally conceded that the indictment for embezzlement could not be sustained against Judge Leonard before a jury. To-day the case of the State vs. James Brown, indictment for murder, has been specially set for trial.

BANKRUPTCY COURT—T. J. Latham, Register.—A final discharge in bankruptcy was issued on yesterday to J. C. Dougherty.

CHANCERY COURT—A. Alston, Clerk and Master.—The Clerk and Master will take an account to-day in the case of Pope et al vs. Perdue et al.

MUNICIPAL COURT—Geo. W. Waldran, Judge—stands adjourned until Friday next.

A short time since there was a grand tournament at Central Park, the proceeds of which were to be donated to the relief of the widows and orphans of the Lost Cause; and I have noticed the papers for a statement of the receipts and expenditures, but none has appeared. I would be pleased for you to call upon the managers to make a statement of the receipts and disbursements, that those who contributed may know how much of the money reached the widows and orphans in whose behalf the tournament was held. POLICE ITEMS.

—Lucy Boyd stole a dress from Lizzie Reed, for which appropriation 'Squire Black requested her to contribute two dollars to the county cash-box.

—'Squire Black issued a peace warrant at the instance of Stephen Grayson, against Jack Davis. The latter threatened to tax the friends of the former to the extent of a coffin, but Steve objects to being a burden upon his admirers in this way, and wants to drop a check into the ballot-box in preference to passing up all his checks. Jack will be bound over to day.

—'Squire Walton was constrained to put Hattie Donaldson and Mollie Williams under bonds of $500 each, to answer at the Criminal Court, on the charge of perjury. They swore to what they should not, and will learn that an oath before a magistrate is not as simple an affair as one upon the street. The complainants and defendants in all the above cases were of the same color as those who met to pow-wow and talk about Grant and the Kukluxes at the Opera House last night.

—There were eight arrests in the First District up to midnight—five negroes and three whites, all for trivial offenses.

—Five arrests were reported up to 8 o'clock in the Second District—three negroes and two whites.

EIGHTH WARD.—The citizens of the Eighth Ward are notified to attend a meeting of the Eighth Ward Democratic Club, at 8 o'clock this evening, opposite the Market House. Business of importance will be transacted, and it is desired that there should be a large attendance. By order of the President.
J. MUSSO, JR., Secretary.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC CLUB OF THE SIXTH WARD.—The members of this Club and those citizens who are desirous to join it, are requested to meet in the Waldran Block this evening at eight o'clock, to hear the various reports of committees and other important business connected with the organization. By order of the President.
J. J. PERES, Secretary.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE FIRST WARD!—A First Ward Democratic Club was organized on Monday evening, 20th inst. The regular meetings of this club will be held every Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, in the hall of No. — engine house. All the citizens of this ward are cordially invited to attend the meetings of this club and enrol their names as members. It is of the utmost importance that the Democracy should organize for the coming Presidential campaign. Should the Radicals succeed, then freemen, your last chance at the ballot-box is forever gone! Rouse up, then, Democrats! Come up and join the club! And when the ides of November set in, let us be prepared to poll against the Radicals a full vote of the glorious old First Ward! Let the Radicals feel the "Pinch!"

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

ST. LOUIS, July 21.—The river is falling here and all the upper streams are declining.

LOUISVILLE, July 21.—The river is falling with four feet in the canal by the mark. The weather is cloudy with indications of rain. Thermometer, 98°.

MEMPHIS, July 22.—Weather warm, with occasional showers. The river at this point has taken a turn and is swelling slowly, having gone up 2 inches in the past 24 hours. We have no later news from the Arkansas or White rivers than given in our last.

Arrivals.

Steamer W. R. Arthur, St. Louis.
" Laura, St. Louis.
" Darling, Cincinnati.
" Natoma, Friar's Point.
" W. A. Caldwell, Ark. river.

Departures.

Steamer Arthur, New Orleans.
" Laura, White river.
" Commercial, White river.
" M. Hambleton, St. F. river.

In Port.

Natoma, Darling, W. A. Caldwell.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Commercial and Mollie Hambleton went out with very fair trips for the season.

The Darling came in last evening from Cincinnati.

The Laura arrived from St. Louis light, bound for White river for a load of lumber.

The Arthur passed down with all the freight she wanted.

An arrangement is about being perfected which will cause quite a change in the future operations of some of our local packets.

The Marble City, Capt. Conway, leaves to-morrow for Cairo and St. Louis.

The handsome U. S. mail steamer W. A. Caldwell will be found in port this morning, and leaves for Little Rock and way points to-morrow evening. Rube Haynes is master, and Jack Chambers, "the silent," is chief clerk.

The splendid steamer Natoma, Capt. Jim Lee, will be in port this morning, and leaves at 5 p.m. for Friar's Point and all way landings. She is now the finest of our local packets. Fields, Whitehead and Lee are her secretaries.

It is not often that we have to record a piece of heartlessness on the part of steamboatmen, but when we do, we are pretty sure to ventilate it. Many of our citizens remember an old steamboat mate named Carnagie, who at one time was employed on the St. Louis wharfboat at our levee. He lost his leg while following the stars and bars in the army of Northern Virginia, and recently, by a fall, was compelled to suffer a second amputation. He yesterday applied to Capt. Pat. Yore, of the W. R. Arthur, for passage to his friends in New Orleans, and was refused. We are satisfied that the officers of the Atlantic line would not indorse the action of Capt. Yore in thus refusing passage to a brother boatman in distress. It was one of the most heartless acts we have ever heard of, and if it wins any fame for the Captain, we hope he will credit us for making it public.

The Darling will leave this evening for Cairo and Cincinnati. She is one of the best boats plying the Ohio river, and will go through without delay. Capt. Lew Kates is master, and Mr. Power, clerk.

The Ruth is due up this morning.

Sam Shock weighs a ton. His trip improved him.

Jim Durff weighs much less. His trip didn't help him.

Cincinnati lager is not conducive to good health.

Capt. M. W. Kenny, of the Tarpaulin Depot, did not take his dogs to New York. They are so pretty he feared to lose them.

The "Knights of the Skid" will meet at their usual place to-day. Matt Glass, secretary.

The Louisville re-shipped 200 tons of freight at Cairo, and has laid up there.

A pilot named Clark, who has a family in St. Louis, was arrested at Cincinnati on Sunday, for causing the ruin of a young lady passenger on the steamer Charmer.

The Columbia has arrived at St. Louis from the mountains. She brought $50,000 in gold.

The Mollie Able is on the docks at St. Louis. She struck a bank and sprung her butts.

The Mississippi will have cotton guards when she comes into this trade.

A large number of steamers are laid up at St. Louis, many of them were never fitted for any trade.

The total tonnage of vessels belonging to the port of St. Louis, steam vessels, is 82,876 60. The number of vessels is about 200. The total tonnage of the barges is 28,572 05. The number of vessels built during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1868, is 16, tonnage 5129 63. The vessels lost during the same time belonging to the port of St. Louis is given at 26, with nearly 12,000 tonnage.

"Life saving suits" have been invented, which will be adopted by the Government, and placed upon all sea-going vessels. The apparatus consists of a cork jacket, which being adjusted and the rubber suit slipped over the wearer's dress, covering the whole body, with the exception of the face and hands, protects the wearer and such valuables as he may have on his person, and keeps him comfortable and free from cramps. The shoe weights keep him in an erect position in the water, and the hand devices enable him to propel himself to shore or any other place of safety. Attached to the suit, by a long cord, is a buoyant apparatus, which contains provisions and fresh water enough to last eight days, so that a person will be enabled to keep floating upon the surface of the water and sustain life during that time. By an ingenious arrangement a flag or device can be floated six feet above the apparatus to direct the attention of passing vessels.

Our Latest Improved
NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.
GROVESTEEN & CO.,
499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. se5 d&wly

IMPORTANT to PLANTERS.

FRIAR'S POINT, MISS., June 10, 1868.

Messrs. MANSFIELD & HIGBEE,
Druggists, Memphis, Tennessee:

GENTLEMEN: You ask me for my statement relative to your cure for ERYSIPELAS or CHARBONE IN HORSES and MULES, which you style

"MAGIC ARNICA LINIMENT."

I have used your Liniment in about two dozen cases with perfect success. I had lost all hope of a remedy, but believe your discovery "THE REMEDY." I have not failed in a single case in which I have applied your Liniment. I believe it a valuable discovery. Think every planter should provide himself with the Magic Arnica Liniment. No planter should be without your remedy where this terrible disease prevails. I have supplied each of my plantations. My supervisors report favorable upon every trial.

Very respectfully, yours, etc.,
J. L. ALCORN.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, }
MEMPHIS, July 21, 1868. }

This was one of the dullest days of the season in our general markets. Very few planters have as yet had leisure to visit the city, and business is confined to small orders. The Arkansas and White river packets as well as the St. Francis river packets, generally bring in a large number of these, but the aggregate of shipments from this port are not satisfactory even for the season. While trade in the city, however, is light, our planters will be in a better condition this year than at any time since the war. The present crop will be made at less outlay than any ever raised in the South, and while it has taught the planter that he can raise a crop at less expense than formerly, it will leave them a handsome surplus to apply to the wiping out of debts contracted in preceding years.

Money matters are very quiet. While there are orders upon the market for stocks and bonds to a large amount, there is none offering. The only transaction reported to-day was a sale of $9000 city bonds indorsed by the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, at 63¾c. City bonds are in demand at 54@55c, but no sellers. We quote nominally as follows: Memphis and Charleston railroad stock, 53c. Memphis Gas Company stock, $1 50; Mississippi Central Railroad, 1st mortgage bonds, 58c; 2d do. 40c. Mississippi and Tennessee, 1st mortgage bonds, 50c. Memphis and Louisville 1st mortgage bonds, 30@31c; 2d do. 20c. Memphis and Little Rock bonds, 40c.

The following are the New York quotations for Government securities to-day: Coupons '81, 15; do '62, 14¼; do '64, 11¼; do '65, 12¼; new issue, 9½; do '67, 9¾; 10-40s, 8¼; 7-30s, 2d and 3d, 9; Old Tennessees, 67; new do 66½. Government bonds steady.

Gold is again in the ascendant, opening in New York at 142¾, and closing at 143. Outside a few small amounts offered to-day we have nothing to report in the coin market. Brokers buy at 141 to 141½. There is no local demand. Dealers would sell at 142@142½.

There was a better inquiry for City Scrip to-day, though no important sales occurred. Dealers were offering 70@73c. Selling at 75@77c.

County Warrants show some signs of reaction from the dullness which has characterized them for some weeks back. One broker is on the market and would take from $25,000 to $50,000 at 50@52½. There is very little offering, however. Selling at 55@56c.

Police Scrip is dull and nominal. Buying at 70@72c. Selling at 73@75c.

The Liverpool cotton market was heavy at the opening to-day. Uplands, 10¾d; Orleans, 11¼d. It was also heavy at 2 p.m., and prices lower. Uplands, 10¾d@10½d; Orleans, 11@11¼d, closing nominally unchanged. Sales, 6000 bales.

In New York at the opening the market was quiet and weak, with prices nominally as follows: Low Middling, 30c; Middlings, 31½@32c; Orleans, 32@32½c; Good Middlings, 33c. At noon uplands were quoted at 31½c, and at the close prices were unchanged, with market dull. Sales, 10,000 bales. There was not a ripple on the calm surface of this market during the day. Upon inquiry from the three or four holders as to whether they have sold, the stereotyped "No!" is heard. Had you an offer? "No!" What are you holding at today? "Well, I don't know; I have a few bales of Low Middlings for which I would take 30c." This is the substance of an hour or two of diligent inquiry.

Also one other parcel of land in the said city of Little Rock, containing three-fourths of an acre, more or less, adjoining the said tract of three acres, on the south thereof, being the same which was conveyed to the said Robert W. Johnson by Noah H. Badgett and his wife, on the twenty-second day of August, 1859 and in their deed described as "beginning at a post eleven poles east from the northwest corner of Mrs. Martha Brookins' lot, where she now resides, thence north eleven poles, thence west eleven poles to the place of beginning;" to which conveyance thereof and the conveyances herein referred to, all the same being of record in the said county of Pulaski, reference is to be had for more full description of the same.

The main body of the lands in Jefferson county compose two plantations, about six miles from Pine Bluff and four from the Arkansas river, known as the Woodburne and Chalmette plantations, the former containing about 1461 acres of which about 750 acres are cleared and fit for cultivation; and the latter about 23.7 acres, of which over 1800 are cleared and ready for cultivation. These lands are five feet or over above any overflow, well drained, and in the finest cotton region of the world.
